Senators Vote $5,000 Raises To Legislators

LANSING (AP) — The Senate voted legislators a $5,000 pay raise early today, hours after a citizens' commission recommended the increase.

Michigan lawmakers' salaries — already the highest of any state — would go to $15,000. The present $2,500 expense allowance would be retained and fringe benefits would be broadened.

The senate also threw in a $10,000 raise for the governor and increases for the attorney general, secretary of state and lieutenant governor.

The bills must go to the house, where a similar $5,000 raise for legislators was approved last year.

The commission recommended the raise was appointed by the Senate and Gov. George Romney, but Romney has not said whether he will sign the bill.

The Senate stayed in session until nearly 1 a.m. to vote on the pay raise. Two Republicans joined 18 Democrats in giving the measure the minimum 20 votes it needed for approval.

Several senators absented themselves during the vote.

Executives Boosted

Nine Republicans and a Democrat opposed the hike, but enough of them joined on a vote for immediate effect to insure the bill would take effect Jan. 1, 1967, following this year's general election.

There was no debate on merits of the general raises although Democrats skirmished briefly over whether party leaders should get extra pay of up to $5,000. That proposal was dropped after a hasty caucus.

The raise for elected state executives passed 25-6. Besides the governor's jump from $30,000 to $40,000, it would boost the attorney general and secretary of state from $20,000 to $30,000 and the lieutenant governor from $17,500 to $22,500.

Sen. Garland Lane, D-Flint, promised major appointive department heads would be given pay increases beginning July 1 provided the legislative increase is approved.

Fringe Benefits

Fringe benefits tacked to this year's bill principally include the opportunity for lawmakers to participate in medical and life insurance programs to the same extent as civil service workers, who get about two-thirds financing from the state. Legislators now pay their own full costs.

The bill also transfers the setting of mileage allowances from statute to joint House-Senate rules. The present allowance is ten cents per mile. Air distance is a means to compute home-to-capital was also stricken, an indirect benefit on expenses to Western Upper Peninsula legislators.

As reported from the committee, the bill proposed to set legislators salaries at half the pay for the secretary of state. But fear developed that Romney might sign the legislative bill and veto the executive pay measure, in effect negating a legislative raise.

Blowing snow cut visibility in the storm belt and several major highways in Wyoming were closed. Temperatures dropped into the teens and lower as cold air spread into the region.

Snow measured 15 inches in parts of Montana and more than 4 inches covered sections of northeastern Colorado. Snow mixed with rain pelted Salt Lake City, Utah. Freezing weather was indicated in northern Utah and southern Idaho, posing a possible threat to fruit crops.

Child Drowns

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — A 15-month-old boy who wandered away from his home unobserved and fell into nearby water was found drowned Monday in the west arm of Grand Traverse Bay about 12 miles from Traverse City. He was Todd Rainey, and his body was found by his mother, Mrs. Howard Rainey.

Traverse City Marine Killed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lance Cpl. Thomas N. Yagle, a Marine from Traverse City, Mich., was listed as killed in action in Viet Nam Monday by the Defense Department.

The department listed Yagle's wife, Betty Fay, as next of kin.

Another Michigan Marine previously listed as missing was reported dead, but the department said the death was not due to hostile action. He was Pfc. Tommy L. White, son of Mrs. Julia B. Luelen of Southgate.

The company reported customers were being advised by telephone to return units for inspection and that many of the modifications already have been completed.

A spokesman explained springs normally are used to lock units in place on railway cars. Brake line damage reportedly was caused by the exhaust pipe bouncing against it.

Hardest Job For Allied Force, To Find Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The hardest job facing allied forces in Viet Nam these days is to scrape up an acquaintance with the Viet Cong on the battlefield.

Some U.S. officers believe the Communists are short of supplies. Others think they are waiting for the monsoons.

The American command chart shows nine operations. This means U.S. troops in units from battalion to multibrigade size are roaming the jungles, the plains and the rice paddies daring the insurgents to fight.

Most of the operations have not been announced and are still on the secret list. Under military ground rules an operation is made public only after significant contact with the enemy.

By refusing to make such contact and by their ability to fade away, the Viet Cong mock the rules, anyway. The U.S. Military Assistance Command announced the end of a big operation by the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division Monday, five days after it started. This was the first disclosure that it even existed, since there was no major contact with the enemy.

This compared with $1,219,384, or 55 cents a share, in the same quarter of 1965.

Sales were $40.4 million, against $33 million.

Calumet & Hecla, which recently reported discovery of a new copper lode on the Keweenaw Peninsula, has been a sensational gainer on the New York Stock Exchange. Buy orders were so heavy trading was suspended six days.

When trading was reopened last week a block sold for $58.00 a share. When trading was suspended, the price was $38.50.

C & H stock was the second most active in trading Monday and closed at $61.50, down $2 for the day in a generally falling market.

C & H operates a Wolverine Tube division plant in Detroit.

Ford Recalls Cars To Repair Transit Damage

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. disclosed Monday its dealers are asking approximately 30,000 owners of 1966 model passenger cars to return them for inspection of a brake line.

Ford said approximately 25,000 Ford and 5,000 Mercuries are involved, and that dealers began recalling them April 8.

The company said in a formal statement after it was asked to verify reports of units being recalled:

"Company personnel discovered, while unloading some vehicles from rail carriers on which the cars had been spring-loaded, that a few of them had a damaged brake line due to severe bouncing...."

"No reports of the failure of the brakes in any unit have been received from customers."

In units found damaged, Ford said dealers also are installing a clip to reroute the brake line. It added the affected units were built in late February and in March when the location of the clip was changed in production.

The company reported customers were being advised by telephone to return units for inspection and that many of the modifications already have been completed.

A spokesman explained springs normally are used to lock units in place on railway cars. Brake line damage reportedly was caused by the exhaust pipe bouncing against it.

Ferency Challenges Romney's 3rd Term

Conservatives Win Control Over Austria

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Austria got its first postwar one-party government today as an all-Conservative Cabinet took over after 21 years of coalition with the Socialists.

The Conservatives decided Monday night to form a government alone after the Socialists refused to accept any reduction of their role in the government although the Conservatives had won a majority in Parliament in the March 6 elections.

"The Socialists wanted us to give firm guarantees for the entire four-year legislation period — this we could not do," Chancellor Josef Klaus told the nation in a radio-television address.

"But we proved our honest intentions by offering them the Cabinet posts they held previously with the exception of the Justice Ministry, which we claimed on the strength of our election victory."

Outgoing Socialist Foreign Minister Bruno Kreisky said his party could not accept these terms "because not only the Socialists, but also a large segment of the population were deeply concerned over the aspects of such accumulation of political power in the hands of one party."

The Socialists held 7 of the 17 Cabinet posts when the coalition government collapsed Oct. 22 while the 1965 budget was under debate. In the election that followed, the Conservatives won 85 of the 165 parliamentary seats, the Socialists 74 and the opposition Freedom party 6.

The Conservatives reportedly were putting on pressure to have Trade Minister Fritz Bock, a Conservative, take over all negotiations on Austria's application for associate membership in the European Common Market. Previously he shared these with Kreisky.

Bock retained his post in the new government and also succeeded Socialist party leader Bruno Pittermann as vice chancellor.

No Surplus Of Horse Troughs

DETROIT (AP) — A dentist,

Dr. Philip Callahan, asked the City Council Monday for an old city horse trough for watering a bunch of fraternal Lions, 2,500 members of the international Lions Clubs, who'll meet in Lansing, Mich., next month.

Callahan thought a trough, "after thorough cleaning and sterilization," would make a fine punch bowl.

The city says it doesn't have any surplus horse troughs at the moment.

Cisler told a shareholder's meeting here the program would add some 2.4 million kilowatts of generating capacity within the next six years. He said it called for construction of a new plant near Monroe, Mich.

Cisler said the construction program would cost an estimated $600 million.

Shareholders were told Detroit Edison's net income for the 12 months ended March 31 was $58 million, an increase of 7 per cent, and earnings per share were $2.01 as compared to a year ago.

James Boyd, president of Copper Range Co. and board chairman of White Pine Mining Co. in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, was elected a director of Detroit Edison. Boyd succeeds Daniel F. Gerber, board chairman of Gerber Products Co. of Fremont, Mich., who retired from the board after 11 years.

But officials said it appeared the union was ignoring the request, which could lead to court action.

A total of 437 of 1,161 construction men honored the lines today. Monday 495 stayed away.

More than 12,000 other union employees at the cape crossed the lines. Except for some slowdown in construction, activity here was normal on the second day of picketing.

Bank Robbed

SOUTHFIELD (AP) — A lone gunman robbed the National Bank of Southfield of an estimated $1,600 in this Detroit suburb Monday. The FBI described the robber as a Negro wearing a light trenchcoat and black gloves and carrying a long-barreled pistol. Agents said he escaped in a yellow Mustang car.

Mansfield Prods For Asian Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield prodded the State Department today to put out diplomatic feelers for an Asian peace conference on Viet Nam.

Acting entirely on his own, Mansfield offered what he believed to be a new approach to possible negotiations.

He proposed in the Senate Monday that Hanoi, Peking and "such elements in South Viet Nam as may be essential to the making and keeping of a peaceful settlement" be invited to meet in Burma or Japan.

Asked in a subsequent interview what hope there is for such a conference, in view of North Viet Nam's rejection of previous peace feelers, he replied:

"It's up to the diplomats to see if they can't arrange such a meeting. I would hope that our State Department representatives would consult with Burmese and Japanese officials and suggest such action."

Mansfield said he does not believe that avenue has been explored sufficiently.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey told the National Democratic Women's Campaign Conference Monday night that President Johnson "spends many hours a day in relentless pursuit of peace."

"A powerful nation can always talk peace," Humphrey said. "This is what we're after." He said U.S. forces "are not in Viet Nam because of geography, or because of who is in charge of a government. We are there to prevent the success of aggression."

Strong And Willing

He also has been on the opposite side of several power struggles with Staebler and his backers.

He has emerged, however, as the strongest willing candidate to date. Others have dropped out of the race almost as fast as their names were mentioned.

The only other challenger is Paul Livingston, a West Bloomfield Township businessman — and a political unknown.

Romney has yet to go through the formality of announcing his candidacy — but Democrats not only know he will, most admit privately he is virtually unbeatable.

All but Ferency, that is. "He is the only candidate among those mentioned who goes into the battle believing he can win," Hare said.

U.S. Court Rules No Negligence On Part Of GM

CHICAGO (AP) — The U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals upheld Monday a lower court decision that General Motors Corp. was not negligent in the design of a 1961 Chevrolet station wagon.

The ruling was on an appeal by Mrs. Barbara Evans, widow of Roy Evans, a research chemist, from a decision in the U.S. District Court in Evansville, Ind.

Evans was killed in a collision of his Chevrolet station wagon and an automobile in Vanderburgh County, Ind. Mrs. Evans alleged he lost his life because the design of the wagon permitted the driver's side of the station wagon to collapse.

The widow, who sued for $480,0

Kiwanis Club Hears Baudek

Interesting and amusing happenings from his own personal experiences in the backwoods areas of Latin America highlighted a talk by Anthony Baudek, president and general manager, Goodman Division, Calumet and Hecla, at the Kiwanis luncheon meeting Monday.

Baudek touched on topics of travel, economics, food, natural resources and language as he related some almost unbelievable happenings in the jungles.

He reported that cacao, bananas, coconuts, and coffee vie with the wood products industry of the area. The coffee is the finest in the world, but the trees, of which there are more than 125 varieties, are highly fibrous, and only four or five species are merchantable at this time. The fibrous quality of the other species would give them value in the paper industry, he said.

The food is very poor, and the quality would seem to test the most ravenous appetite. Travel is limited to a narrow gauge railroad called the Northern, a very rundown taxi service, and precarious flights from small airfields or beaches, where the passengers are loaded on top and only after the freight.

The languages in the area include Spanish, Dutch, French, English, and many combinations thereof. It is not unusual to find a group in which a question is asked in one tongue, answered in another, and related in still another.

Revolutions are seemingly a way of life with these people of the backwoods, and elections are the cause of a huge national holiday, Baudek said.

Minority Leader To Address GOP

By DOUGLAS VIELMETTI

Rep. Gerald R. Ford has been called one of those rare politicians who has lived the American success story.

House Minority Leader Ford will be in Marquette Saturday to address U.P. Republicans at their annual $100-per-plate fund-raising dinner set for 7 p.m. in the University Center of Northern Michigan University.

W. H. Treloar of the Marquette Mining Journal will be toastmaster.

Jerry Ford's success story began to unfold at the University of Michigan where, while working his way through school, he starred on the national championship football team of 1932 and 1933. In his senior year he was elected the team's most valuable player. He also was graduated with honors.

Ford passed up offers from the Detroit Lions and Green Bay Packers to accept an assistant coaching job at Yale University. He received a law degree from the highly-regarded Yale Law School in 1941.

But before young Jerry Ford had a chance to practice much law in his home town of Grand Rapids, he joined the Navy. Forty-seven months later, in 1946, he left active duty as a lieutenant commander.

Ford started to think about politics while in the Navy and wasted little time getting his feet wet after returning to Grand Rapids. Ford's first effort was as a member of the Home Front Group which took local control of the Republican party from Financier Frank D. McKay, a long-time party boss on both the state and local levels.

He took on another political old-timer in 1948 and captured the Republican nomination for the House of Representatives. That year he became

REP. GERALD R. FORD

Congressman Gerald Ford, defeating his Democrat opponent by a landslide. He has experienced nothing but hardships since. Victory totals have ranged from 60 to 67 per cent of the vote.

In 1948 Ford and another freshman congressman, John F. Kennedy, struck up a lasting friendship. Sixteen years later, Ford was named to the Warren Commission and charged with the task of investigating the death of President Kennedy.

Ford was elected minority leader of the House of Representatives at the opening of the 89th Congress on January 4, 1965. In the 88th Congress he was chairman of the Republican Conference of the House. Before becoming minority leader, Ford served on the House Appropriations Committee and as ranking GOP member on the subcommittee for the Defense Department. He has been a member of the Joint Senate-House Republican Leadership since January, 1963.

The minority leader and his wife, Elizabeth, are parents of four children. They were wed less than a month before Ford was first elected to the House, in 1948.

Accompanying Ford to Marquette Saturday will be John B. Martin, National Committeeman from Michigan.

Breault Heads Escanaba Lions

Donald Breault, manager of Thyberg's, Inc., Monday was elected President of the Escanaba Lions Club for the coming year.

He will succeed Donald Scott.

Other officers elected by the club are Walter Peterson, first vice president; Fred Seykly, second vice president; Dennis Foltman, third vice president; Augie Brazeau, tale twister; Stanley Johnson, Lion tamer.

Dr. M. H. Garrard and James Hall were elected to two year terms on the Board of Directors.

Lions heard Clifford Perras, manager of the Upper Peninsula State Fair, discuss plans for a new exhibition building and a format for putting the fair back onto a profitable basis.

Perras said a planning grant of $5,000 has been approved for the new exhibition building and that plans are being drawn by G. Arntzen & Co. Architects, to get maximum community use from the building—if and when the legislature appropriates an estimated $250,000 to build it.

The new building would be of one-story construction with main arena dimensions of 132 by 230 feet. It would be large enough to use as a center for conventions and meetings, Perras said.

Perras said the Fairgrounds is going to get a new horse barn. He said it is hoped the barn will be ready for this year's fair.

"In the future I think you will see bigger and better things from the U.P. State Fair because of state administrative reorganization," Perras said. "We used to be one of 140 agencies going to Lansing with our hands out begging for an appropriation. We're under the Department of Agriculture now and for the first time in many years we had our entire budget approved by committee."

Perras said the Fair Board of Managers has been meeting throughout the Upper Peninsula in an effort to gain new ideas for the Fair.

This year anyone over 14 years of age will be charged 50 cents for admission at the gate. The charge, however, will provide parking and free admission to grandstand shows, Perras said.

Improving Logging

The loggers workshops in the Upper Peninsula sponsored by the Timber Producers Association and Employers Insurance of Wausau made a substantial contribution to the educational effort now underway to help loggers.

James Hensel, forest engineer of the American Pulpwood Association and one of the most knowledgeable men in the field, said that he is convinced that the wood industries are not going to be able to recruit a lot of new men for woods work. The competitions of other employments are just too stiff, he reasons.

Woods work has the detractions of seasonal employment, out-of-doors working conditions and hazard. It has always been shy on fringe benefits and has provided its better operators a good living only because they are great exponents of Yankee ingenuity and hard workers.

With quite a hunk of the woods labor force hired away to better paid and easier jobs the normal forces of economics should come into play and make these unattractive jobs better paid than easier jobs, the way foundry work compensates for its dirt and dust by premium pay. But this has not happened because there has, up to now, been a relative surplus of woods labor. The surplus bid the price of labor down.

This situation has passed. It did not solve itself: it was solved from the outside by other industries hiring many woods workers. As the wood industries move to stop this leak they are active on several fronts. The price of wood has been advanced so that more pay goes to cutters and handlers.

There is also an unprecedented effort at examining logging practices to see if they are as efficient as they could be if modern knowledge were applied to the problems. This look has resulted in a consensus that more mechanization of logging is on the way and that it will result in the production of more wood with fewer workers through the use of more machinery.

The best woods operations in the Lake States are already mechanized considerably, and Hensel rated Lake States producers of short wood the most efficient in the nation. Chainsaws are standard equipment for cutters now and they have been improved more than the men who handle them. Too many of them still fell trees without cutting notches, wearing safety shoes and pants and hard hats or taking the other precautions that keep lumberjacks out of the hospital or the marble orchard.

Wood combines that saw off or shear off trees, catch the falling tree, limb it and cut it up into lengths are now in use in the South and will come into more general usage as they become more refined and "bug" free. They will replace some workers and they will upgrade woods jobs by calling for the handling of rather complex machinery. Here the Lake States should shine, because their loggers are much better mechanics and machine operators than Southern woods labor, which is noted for its inability to operate sophisticated machines and to maintain them.

A trend toward larger wood production operations is indicated by some developments. U. S. Plywood at Gaylord has announced that it will have 35 major suppliers to produce its woods needs. The old order in the U. P. has been for the paper mill wood department to play Dutch uncle to every needy jobber who brought wood to the mill. They helped him by buying it, saw some of it deteriorate while waiting for processing, and by their effort to help, prolonged a system of wood supply which for a long time produced on undesirable surplus and which now produces a deficiency.

The new order of woods harvest definitely calls for training, probably industry-sponsored, on-the-job training. We have had training of sawyers, scalers, saw filers and other technicians of the wood industries, but not of cutting crews, and where it has been tried at Gaylord and elsewhere it has been reported pretty much of a dud. There is now a federal grant to try some pilot projects of cutter training in the U. P. with sponsorship by UPCAP and Sault Tech playing schoolmarm and we shall see what can be done.

Hensel's conviction that our best prospect is upgrading of the present work force and not hiring a new one supports training and mechanical innovation.

The severity of labor shortages in the U. P. is indicated by the "Help Wanted" ads in U. P. newspapers. The Greenville, Mich., Daily News editorialized on April 14 "Getting this (unemployed) manpower to move is a problem. One industry tried an advertising and recruiting campaign in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, a place where the percentage of jobless remains disturbing. After spending considerable money and effort, the firm has been able to land only three employees. So it gave up. No matter how futile the economic outlook, home has an attachment for most of the remaining U. P. people, it would seem."

This problem, too, is educational.

Saved By Belts

After four years of what could not have been the most pleasant job anyone ever had — on-the-spot studies of auto deaths — two scientists have issued what has been called "the most intensive first-hand study of traffic deaths since the car was born."

Dr. Donald F. Heulke, an anatomicist, and Dr. Paul W. Gikas, a pathologist, both of the University of Michigan, reconstructed each of the 139 fatal accidents that took place in the Ann Arbor area over a four-year period. The project was commissioned by the U. S. Public Health Service.

Its chief findings need little elaboration:

• Forty per cent (71) of the 177 persons who died in the accidents would have lived if they had been wearing a simple lap belt. (Of these, 38 were killed by being thrown from the car; 33 by "secondary collision" with some part of the interior of the car.)

• Twenty per cent more (35) would have been saved by a shoulder harness and belt. (Of these, 32 were killed in the "secondary collision.")

• Thirty-seven per cent (66) would have died regardless of belts, in most cases because the passenger compartment was greatly collapsed.

Dr. Heulke answers with cold statistics the occasional story of someone who survived an accident which would have killed him if he had been belted in: "We have had only one case of a survivor who owes his life to not wearing a seat belt. We have had at least 71 who owe their deaths to not wearing one. Anybody who doesn't wear a seat belt is stupid."

Another statistic speaks eloquently to those who stake their lives on their own skill and caution — their ability to avoid "the other guy": Of the 93 victims in multiple-car accidents, 33 — more than a third — perished in the car judged not to be at fault.

New Pop Music Primer

This Music Pulse Of Life For Young Ann Should Wipe Egg Off Her Face

By PHILIP WERDELL

Moderator Magazine
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Parents, not their children, are worried about the "generation gap." They used to be troubled by why Johnny can't read; now they wonder why they can't talk to Johnny.

It would be helpful if they would listen — not to Johnny, for certainly they are trying, but to what Johnny listens to. Records. Radio. Television, when it turns to popular songs. There are a number of not-so-subtle messages in the new pop music.

Pop music continues to live on a diluted form of jazz. It is diluted to be easy to understand, but it still has the rhythmic vitality which is the key to its popularity.

But the simplistic rock 'n' roll of Elvis Presley is out. Evolving is a form of music which is lyrically, musically and emotionally more sophisticated. The young listener — whether the cause or the effect of the new pop music — is also more mature.

When Harvard social scientist David Riesman was studying youthful fans of popular music in the early 1950s, he found that young people could not talk about the music they so ardently listened to. "The vocabulary used to talk about (popular) music was . . . 'swell,' 'lousy,' 'I go for that,' and so on." Not so today.

Sometimes, even before they reach high school, student conversations are about the new variations of the Mersey beat, the ideas of a recent Bob Dylan hit, "soul" of the Motown (Motor Town, for Detroit) sound with its first "pop beat blues."

Pop music and its youthful fans are coming of age.

The new pop music has reached the repetition of simple choruses, over and over; the new pop music has discarded the naive romantic lyrics of "Will I ever find the girl in my mind, the girl who is my ideal?" and "Love me tender, love me true."

It has left behind the complete self-pity of "crying in the chapel"; and, most importantly, the new pop music has obtained both a sense of feeling and a sense of humor. Parents'

I put in over 300 days in the last two and a half years in the hospital and I want to thank Mr. George Ryan of Gladstone and all the others connected with the Cancer Society.

But to Rep. Hugh Carey, D-N. Y., the act was a bit more serious. "Imagine the Clan Na-Gael looking into George Washington's record and finding out that he was once in the employ of the British," he says. "Good-bye, Washington Monument!"

It took Bob Dylan to prove that the words as well as the music could break out of limited jingle form. Whether singing a song or writing jacket covers, Dylan sounds like a contemporary hipster poet . . . WASHINGTON — (NEA) —

White House press secretary Bill Moyers, addressing the National Newspapers Association, explained that he almost had to cancel out because President Johnson had changed his schedule at the last second.

"He has a way of doing that," continued Moyers. "Not too long ago he called me and said: 'Bill, I'm going to Honolulu.' I said 'Fine, Mr. President. I'll come over and talk to you about it. Where are you?'

"He said: 'Over Los Angeles.'"

Rep. Robert Sweeney, D-Ohio, suggests that the dynamiting of Lord Nelson's statue in Dublin was merely a form of Irish urban renewal.

But to Rep. Hugh Carey, D-N. Y., the act was a bit more serious. "Imagine the Clan Na-Gael looking into George Washington's record and finding out that he was once in the employ of the British," he says. "Good-bye, Washington Monument!"

The first cargo of air mail was sent from Washington to Philadelphia in 1918. A distinguished group including President Woodrow Wilson saw the plane off.

Somehow the pilot got confused and the pioneer sack of air mail eventually wound up in Waldorf, Md. It had to be carried back to Washington by train.

One of the most unusual accidents on the Post Office Department's records happened to Kenneth Unger, one of the first air mail pilots.

After engine failure, he crash-landed in a field, surviving without a scratch. But, borrowing a horse to return to town, he promptly fell off and broke his ankle.

Madame Chiang Kai-shek, wife of the president of the Republic of China, once again proved to the Washington press corps that her command of the English language is as good as anybody's.

Madame Chiang's first speech at the National Press Club eight years ago sent nearly every reporter present scurrying for his dictionary in an attempt to figure out what she had said.

Her recent reappearance at the Press Club wasn't much different, except that several veteran newsmen brought dictionaries with them.

Madame Chiang promptly proved this was a wise step. Recalling that she had raised the question of how to best the challenge of communism at her earlier appearance, she added:

"I must say that my question was disputation as well as quodlibetrical but certainly not a quoddy . . ."

(For those not within reach of a dictionary, quodlibetrical means a debatable point and a quoddy is a philosophical abstraction.)

Some folks living in the spring flood areas will soon be glad they contributed to the Red Cross.

Ann Landers

Egg Off Her Face

Dear Ann Landers: Every owner of the Indianapolis Speedway. We averaged 25 to 30 miles a day and spent many nights with warm-hearted folks who offered us a barn for the horses and soft beds for our selves.

The only mishap came on the 46th day of the trip when my horse broke his leg 30 miles east of El Paso. Compadre, my new steed, held up admirably for the duration. He got along well with Tango and Tiny Tim.

Our biggest problem: Drivers who tossed firecrackers or blasted their automobile horns as they passed us on the road. Other than that we had a ball. The young woman and her horse would surely be hit the first week of the trip.

She said she wanted to leave in May. The desert heat that time of year is unbearable. And what about the crazy characters a woman would have to fight off on such a trip?

The person who made up that letter had a wild imagination but a telephone call to your local saddle club could have saved you from being duped. Next time you get a far-outter, check it, Baby. NO PIGEON

Dear No Pidge: Thank you for your letter. Please read the next one. You may find it interesting.

Dear Ann Landers: If that young woman who hopes to ride from Kentucky to California wants some first-hand advice we would be glad to help her. When I say "we" I mean myself, Mary Jo Alifier O'Brien, Mrs. Thora Guathier and Miss Naomi Scully.

On July 23, 1962, we mounted our horses in Erie, Pennsylvania and for six and a half months we rode. On February 15, 1963, we arrived in Pasadena, California.

Thora, Naomi and I met through the Erie County Sheriff's Rangerettes, a mounted drill team in Erie. We liked each other and together we planned a trip that proved to be a positively fascinating experience.

We carried our clothing, cooking utensils and water in saddle bags, tied the bedrolls on to the backs of the saddles, and camped out.

Newspapers, TV and radio interviewed us in dozens of cities and we received many invitations for meals and housing. Among our hosts were an Air Force captain, a junior high school principal, Bob Hope's aunt, an Amish family, and the

Christie, Marvin Are Top Actors

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Britain's Julie Christie, rugged Lee Marvin and "The Sound of Music" won the top Oscars — with the President's daughter Lynda Bird Johnson a guest star in the audience.

The blonde Miss Christie was honored at Monday night's 38th annual Academy Awards as an English model who sleeps her way to success with a succession of high and low society figures in "Darling."

Hands to face, sobbing but gleeful, she gasped: "I don't know what to say except to thank everyone concerned — especially my darling John Schlesinger (the director) for this wonderful picture."

Said Marvin, the roaring drunk gunfighter of "Cat Ballou," after prolonged, thunderous applause indicating a popular choice:

"Half of this (Oscar) belongs to a horse someplace out in the valley" — a reference to the dilapidated nag he rode in the Western film.

Julie Andrews — who didn't win for "The Sound of Music" — did accept an Oscar for its director, Robert Wise, now at work on another picture in Hong Kong.

The brilliantly melodic "Sound of Music" — in which Miss Andrews was again nominated for her role as a governess as when she won in "Mary Poppins" a year ago — won the best picture award.

The award for best performance by an actor in a supporting role went to Martin Balsam in "A Thousand Clowns." He played a "square" business success, the older brother of happy-go-lucky Jason Robards.

Best performance by an actress in a supporting role: Shelley Winters brutal mother of a blind girl in "A Patch of Blue."

It was Miss Winters' second supporting-actress Oscar — the first such twin victory for any actress. She won in 1959 as a dowdy Dutch housewife in "The Diary of Anne Frank."

The supposedly blind girl of "A Patch of Blue" — Elizabeth Hartman, in her first movie — was nominated for a starring Oscar.

Hollywood's annual big night went off with all the traditional

Trial Testimony Continues Before Circuit Court

Testimony in the companion suits of Mary Ellen Kane against Charles Atherton, Matthias Township, Alger County, and Harry Buchman, Rapid River, continued this morning in Delta County Circuit Court before Judge Bernard H. Davison.

The cases are being heard by a jury composed of nine women and three men.

Atherton was the driver of a car which collided with the Kane automobile on US-41 about 4.1 miles north of Rapid River on Dec. 2, 1962. Kenneth Kane, the plaintiff's husband, died as a result of injuries in the crash.

Buchman is named as owner of the Dutch Mill, where Atherton and Mr. and Mrs. Kane were prior to the accident.

Briefly Told

Escanaba police have issued traffic court summonses to Floyd E. Lambkin of Brantford, disobeying a traffic signal; Dennis W. Carlson, Cornell Rte. 1, speeding and improper passing; and George W. Novak, Bark River, defective brakes, no vehicle registration and no operator's license.

Veterans of World War I Barracks 1128 and Auxiliary will hold an open meeting at the VFW Clubrooms at 904 Sheridan Road on Thursday, April 21. There will be a fish fry starting at 6 o'clock and continuing to 8, with a business meeting to follow. Veterans of World War I, their wives or widows are welcome. Past State Department Commander Vital Payant and Mrs. Payant, District I secretary of the Auxiliary, Iron Mountain; and District Commander Sivert Sundlie and Mrs. Sundlie, District president of the Auxiliary, will attend.

Marriage license applications have been made at the County Clerk's office by Kenneth William Kelloniemi, 300 N. 15th St., and Darlene Jean Cousineau, 805 Washington Ave., and by Roger Joseph Derouin, Milwaukee, and Ruth Ellen Race, West Allis, Wis.

Seaway Seeks Toll Raises

OTTAWA (AP) — A proposal for a 10 per cent increase in St. Lawrence Seaway tolls, to take effect in the 1967 shipping season, was announced by the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority Monday.

It is also proposed to introduce a lockage fee on the Welland Canal starting at $20 per lock in 1967 and rising by $20 a year until it reaches $100 per lock in 1971.

There are eight locks in the canal which now is a toll-free system.

Public hearings will be held in Ottawa beginning May 25 to hear representations from organizations or individuals on the new tolls.

Similar hearings will open in Chicago June 1 before the St. Lawrence Development Corp., the U.S. counterpart to the Canadian authority.

Shipping interests in recent weeks have protested on hearing reports that the two agencies had agreed on a plan for higher tolls on the deficit-plagued waterway.

The Ottawa announcement said both agencies had studied the toll situation with assistance from independent consultants.

The proposed tolls would remain in effect until the end of 1971.

AEC Approves Making Isotope In State Plant

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission has approved production of radioisotope Cobalt-60 at the Big Rock Point Nuclear Power Plant in Michigan, Rep. Raymond Cleverger, D-Mich., said Monday.

The AEC approval, Cleverger said, followed a request from Consumers Power Co. of Michigan, operator of the Big Rock Point Plant.

Cleverger said AEC officials indicated that the Big Rock Point Plant is the first central station nuclear power plant to be used for the large-scale commercial production of Cobalt-60. The radioisotope is used in industry, medicine and research.

American Women Deny They Run The U.S.A.

NEW YORK (AP) — You just can't say the United States is run by the ladies and expect American women—and men—to swallow it cheerfully.

Dr. Joshua Bierer, a leading British psychiatrist said just that before he left for a U.S. lecture tour beginning today in Tucson, Ariz. And for many a smoldering American feminist he has already said too much.

As a takeoff point, Dr. Bierer had commented in a London interview that Americans are "the most worried people in the world" and that prosperity and women are the root of most of the trouble.

Snapped Mary Mannes, perhaps America's most articulate and caustic — feminine social critic:

"Clearly Dr. Bierer doesn't know what he's talking about. Perhaps if he caught up with present realities here, and learned the complex roots of anxieties shared by our men and women alike, he would stop playing this very old — and very cracked — record."

Additional Bierer statements that failed to endear the London Hospital director and editor-in-chief of the International Journal of Society Psychiatry to Miss Mannes and other American critics:

"The status of American women is a tremendous cause of worry... American women are ruling the American society. The American man works himself to death at 40 or 50 and leaves rich widows. The United States is a matriarchy and this is a very unhealthy thing because fundamentally women like strong men."

Said Betty Friedan, author of MARINE CORPS Sgt. Richard Rangue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rangue of Fayette, has arrived in Viet Nam and is at Phu Bai with American forces in the war against the Viet Cong. He has been in service seven years.

— Dr. Sandor Lorand — said:

"Dr. Bierer's views are all distorted."

Toll Increase

MASSENA, N.Y. (AP) — The St. Lawrence Seaway Corp. opens hearings in Chicago June 1 to consider a 10 per cent toll increase, Joseph H. McCann, seaway administrator, said Monday. He said similar hearings would begin in Ottawa, Canada, May 25.

Talk Of Buying Paper Firm

PORLAND, Ore. (AP) — Georgia-Pacific Corp. said Monday it is discussing the possibility of acquiring Kalamazoo Paper Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich.

"It is too early to surmise where discussion will lead," a G-P spokesman said. "Any arrangement would be subject to the action of the boards of both companies before it could be announced."

Kalamazoo, manufacturer of coated and uncoated printing papers, employs about 625 persons at three paper mills and two converting mills in Kalamazoo.

Georgia-Pacific says it is the nation's largest producer of plywood. It also manufactures paper and paperboard, paper products, lumber, chalkboard, gypsum and other products.

The G-P spokesman said the discussions have been held primarily in New York.

Fund Speaker

DETROIT (AP) — Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution, will be the keynote speaker for the 1966 United Negro College Fund at a kickoff dinner Thursday. The fund helps support 33 Negro colleges and universities in 11 southern states.

Power Lost

ADRIAN (AP) — Southeast Lenawee and western Monroe Counties lost electric power for about 40 minutes Monday. Consumers Power Co. officials blamed a transformer in an Adrian substation.

ARMED RICHARD J. Whitburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur R. Whitburn, 809 S. 13th St., Escanaba, has been selected for training at Amarillo AFB, Tex., as an Air Force personnel specialist.

Cuba Shows Off Russian Tanks And Warplanes

HAVANA (AP) — Communist Cuba marked the fifth anniversary of its Bay of Pigs victory Sunday with a demonstration of fire power by Soviet warplanes and tanks.

While Cubans watched from shore and on television, MIG15 and MIG21 jets teamed up with T55 tanks to sink a small unarmed freighter in Havana harbor.

A television announcer drummed at the claim that the MIG21 could out-perform any warplane the United States possesses.

Blaney Park To Open Most Units

Blaney Park resort will open for the 1966 season soon, but on a restricted basis, owner Stewart E. Earle of Hermansville announced today.

The big Schoolcraft County resort on U.S. 2 and M-77, which opened in 1926 and which was acquired by Stewart Earle as sole owner in 1948 in a division of the Earle Estate, was offered by him for sale at the end of the 1965 season.

He said that the trend to camping, the labor and minimum wage laws and other factors had changed the resort picture adversely for an establishment like Blaney with its huge spread of woodlands, its inland lakes and recreation facilities.

The property has not been sold yet, but it still is offered for sale, Earle said, and plans announced today for this season's operations are contingent upon possible sale.

Earle's sons, Jack and Bill, who have been associated with their father in the management of the resort, will manage the property. The dining room will not be opened unless leased.

The resort gas station will continue in operation under lease.

The Earle management will open the Camp 9 cottages at the U.S. 2 entry to the resort, the swimming pool, golf course, bar, store, horse stable, and the housekeeping cottages on the lake.

The pilots reported showers of explosions and said the lights of Haiphong went out at once. The plant provides 15 per cent of North Viet Nam's electricity, including a third of the power Haiphong uses and one-fourth of the total of the capital 60 miles to the west.

Neither Hanoi nor Haiphong has been hit by U.S. air attack, but American planes brought the war close to the capital Sunday with attacks on missile sites 15 and 17 miles south and southwest of Hanoi. Pilots reported both sites were engulfed in flames.

The raid Monday night was carried out by twin-jet A6 Intruders, a subsonic plane designed to deliver big payloads of low-level attacks. They came from the carrier Kitty Hawk and reported only light, ineffective antiaircraft fire, although both Haiphong and Hanoi are said to be ringed with Soviet-built antiaircraft missile sites.

The remaining $4.3 million was recommended for projects at seven community colleges, to cost an estimated total of $20.6 million.

The projects, with estimated total cost and recommended funds:

—Northern Michigan University, Marquette, learning resources center, estimated cost, $5.5 million, federal funds recommended, $1 million.

BPW Clubs Hold Conference Here

Business and Professional Women's Clubs of District 2 held their Spring meeting Sunday, April 17 at the Sherman Hotel. Clubs represented were Munising, Newberry, St. Ignace, Sault Ste. Marie and Escanaba.

Featured speaker was Carolyn W. Luck, member of the Sault Ste. Marie Bowting Club, who spoke on Potential Program Planning.

Mrs. Luck represented the Michigan Federation of BPW Clubs at the national convention at Washington, D. C. last July, as Michigan's Young Career Woman.

She attended many workshops at the convention and came away with many bright ideas for good programming.

An enthusiastic member of BPW, she feels that programs should emphasize continuing education and suggests that clubs should study communism, politics, history and economics.

She also suggested speech tests, parliamentary procedure tests, and programs that would encourage members to speak and act, as the success of a club depends on each member's participation in its programs and projects.

Mrs. Luck, who is a physical therapist at the Orthopedic School for children in Sault Ste. Marie and still a very young woman herself, is greatly interested in helping young people.

She stated that youth can become the biggest problem facing this nation with a potential of 7 million dropouts from high school and a half million potential juvenile delinquents.

She feels that clubs should have programs emphasizing Youth; that youth should be made conscious of their individuality, with more stress on the importance of good morals and ethics and they should be given love and understanding.

Following a noon luncheon, a business meeting was conducted by Iva Suggitt, district director. Plans were discussed for a Leadership Conference to be held at Sault Ste. Marie in June for all organizations in the surrounding area. Mrs. Luck has been named General Chairman of this event.

Officers of District 2 for the coming year are Iva Suggitt, Sault Ste. Marie, district director; Jean Kasun, Escanaba, assistant district director; Mayne Eubank, St. Ignace, secretary and treasurer. The fall meeting will be held at Munising.

Mrs. August Schultz of Perronville, who has been a patient at Marinette General Hospital for three weeks, is recovering and is now reported off the critical list. She is in Room 308.

He had particular reference to the one in which the high court held that even if error of fact were shown in the case of a public official, a judgment could be made in his favor only if malice on the part of the defendant were proved.

The bill, Del Rio moved to have the bill sent back to committee. The vote for the move was 84-4.

"A lot of Democrats have lobbied to kill this bill," said Del Rio, whose floor speeches frequently criticize the press.

"Whatever trouble you get from now on—it's your problem, remember that," he added.

Rep. Daniel Cooper, D-Oak Park, an attorney, said he had studied U.S. Supreme Court decisions over the weekend, and come to the conclusion that such a provision in state law "would be contrary to Supreme Court rule."

He had particular reference to the one in which the high court held that even if error of fact were shown in the case of a public official, a judgment could be made in his favor only if malice on the part of the defendant were proved.

The bill, Del Rio said, would prevent the almost summary dismissal of case after case on the grounds that malice had not been proved — forcing cases one step further than they usually go.

Malice would be presumed, he added, only after slander or libel was proved, he added.

Lawyer-legislators in general conceded that malice is virtually impossible to prove.

Rep. E.D. O'Brien, D-Detroit, said he planned to introduce a "truth in publishing" bill next year.

Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, minority leader and an attorney, complained the bill would reverse the traditional legal processes. Rep. Marvin Stimpert, D-Livonia, also an attorney, insisted the bill made only a procedural change in the law.

Tree Shipping Begins Today

Wyman nursery of the Michigan Conservation Department Monday hired a crew of 30 and today was to begin shipping trees for plantings purposes. The work will be completed in about four weeks.

About half of the three million trees will go to lower Michigan. White pine, white spruce and red pine make up the shipments, a fourth of which are going for plantings by the state.

One fifth of the shipment is white spruce, all going to private planters.

Volumes at the nursery are on par with last year, due to pickup of additional area to be served in Lower Michigan since closing of the nursery at Higgins Lake.

Later this year the nursery will plan six millions to replenish supply.

State Plans Discing For Jackpine Seeding

The Michigan Conservation Department this year plans to disc 100 acres in the Manistique district, and will regenerate the land to jackpine production.

Direct seed planting will follow. Twenty acres will be done initially, Wilfred Wallace, forester reports.

The department is completing installation of a well at Merwin Creek campground and will install 150 barrier posts.

During the winter the new Mead Creek campground also had a well drilled. The two campgrounds, both accessible from the Manistique River road, have a total of 25 sites.

Timber sale activities of the department are expected to be greater this year with better markets, though labor is still a problem.

Fish Hatchery

Readies For Muskie Rearing

By The Associated Press

A contract has been awarded for a 385-foot well with 8-inch casing and plans are being made for a 60-foot addition to the Thompson fish hatchery as it prepares to raise muskallonge.

A story hour will be held Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in the Lincoln School kindergarten room. Children 3 and older are invited.

State Police ticketed Marie M. Johnson, Midland, Evelyn M. Peterson, Charlevoix, John A. McLean, Newberry, Maurice J. Heikkinen, Brighton, Lynn R. Frank, Peck, spending Donald A. Phillips, Lansing, non-stop.

Roger Douglas Lustila, 20, of Germfask received a foot injury requiring 25 stitches in a motorcycle accident at 7:05 p.m. Saturday on the school road in Germfask. State Police said a car ahead of him made a U-turn, when he thought it was pulling to the curb to park. He hit the car and the right front of a parked car.

Possibility of taking perch from stunted lakes to feed the "muskies" is being considered. Runoff of the water will be directed to outdoor ponds at the Thompson hatchery, for growing plankton.

Muskallonge, rated a great game fish, are legal at 30 inches.

The Thompson hatchery now has a half million coho salmon for the new state planting program. These will be for planting next year.

Also stocked at the hatchery are some spokane, a cross between a rainbow and lake trout, for fall planting, and many brook, brown and rainbow trout, to be planted as soon as new trucks in the acquisition process, are received.

More fingerling size trout are being planted.

The department hatchery assisted Indian Lake Property Owners in netting 267 walleye pike from Indian Lake, stripping eggs for the hatchery property owners have constructed on the bank of the Indian River.

Soil Program

A program on soil conservation was presented for the Rotary Club Monday by Roger Howell of the Soil Conservation district.

He showed slides of practices to drain and stabilize fields, discussed services offered urban and rural dwellers, and showed monoliths of soil types and uses.

St. Christopher Circle

St. Christopher Circle met at the home of Mrs. Joseph Gardapee. The meeting opened with prayers and was followed by games. Mrs. Tony Klarich won the special award. Mrs. Matt Weber was high in 500 and Mrs. Gardapee low, and in canasta, Mrs. Rudy Klarich was high and Mrs. Lyle McManus low.

Zaslofsky was armed with a personal scouting report on every NBA player for his talk with Arnold Heft, one of the three Baltimore owners, and Bullets' General Manager Buddy Jean-man.

"The pros make a lot of mistakes simply because they don't know the fundamentals," said the former NBA scoring champion Monday prior to his interview with Bullet officials about the coaching vacancy.

"Some people say the pros know everything and shouldn't have to be taught," Zaslofsky said. "That's ridiculous. There are only about three clubs in the league who know how to box the opposition off the boards. If they did, the big men wouldn't get all those rebounds."

Zaslofsky was armed with a personal scouting report on every NBA player for his talk with Arnold Heft, one of the three Baltimore owners, and Bullets' General Manager Buddy Jean-

man.

Zaslofsky, now 40, retired from the NBA in 1956 after a 10-year career. Since then, the former St. John's University star has coached an industrial team for six years while serving as director of management training for a New York freight forwarding firm.

Heft said the three owners probably would confer this weekend to narrow down the field of some 30 applicants for the job.

Tony Sratto, league president, explained the decision to drop the program: "Apology on the part of parents and lack of interest on the part of adults leaves us with no other alternative but to give up plans for this year."

* * *

Al Schupp of Iron Mountain, winner of the Class A-B mile run in the indoor meet at Northern Saturday, is a sophomore . . . He was credited with a 4:47.3 clocking, an outstanding performance considering the lack of time for training and the short track at the NMU fieldhouse.

Golden Classic Entries Begin

Thirty teams have already been entered in the Golden Classic Bowling Tournament to be conducted next month on the lanes of the Four Seasons in Marquette, the first Upper Peninsula event to be held on the alleys.

The tournament will be held over two weekends, May 7-8 and May 14-15. It is expected to attract 100 entries from all parts of the peninsula and from Green Bay, Marinette, Rhinelander, Duluth, Hibbing and Canadian points.

The big attraction is a guaranteed whopping $1,500 for first place, believed to be the largest amount offered in an Upper Peninsula event.

One of the leading teams already entered is the Silver Domes, Marinette, a team capable on any evening of spilling 3,000 pins or more. It is one of the high average teams of the northern Wisconsin circuit. Doug Blom, Four Seasons manager, today said, "Interest in the event is gaining momentum. In addition to actual entries, we are getting a number of inquiries, many of which will be translated this coming week into actual entries. Some of our bowling ambassadors of good will have done a great job in getting the message across and their work is only now showing effect."

Entries will close Monday, April 25, but a flood of contestants is expected to line up for the golden prize during the week.

Palmer Wins Golf Playoff

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Arnold Palmer flew home for a rest in his Pennsylvania home today, the four-stroke winner in the Tournament of Champions golf playoff.

Runner-up Gay Brewer headed for the $85,000 Dallas Open, which starts Thursday.

Palmer won his second straight Tournament of Champions title in a playoff Monday and $20,000 when he shot a 3435 — 37-73.

Bucking 35-mile-an-hour winds and a sandstorm, Palmer took a two-stroke lead after the first nine holes of the playoff — the first playoff in the tournament's 14-year history. He went into the 18th hole with a five-stroke margin.

Palmer admittedly played it safe on the last hole and went over par with a bogey 5. But it was still safe enough to give him a four-stroke margin at the wind-up.

The 18-hole playoff attracted 2,847 fans and a gross gate of $19,929. Palmer and Brewer each received $4,982 for the playoff.

Palmer and Brewer traded birdies for the first four holes, but Palmer took a lead of two strokes after nine holes. Brewer fell behind in what probably was the decisive turn of events when he bogeyed the eighth and ninth holes.

It was the second playoff loss in a week for Brewer. He finished third last Monday in the Masters tournament to Jack Nicklaus and Tommy Jacobs.

Keith Morin of Escanaba is secretary-treasurer of the U.P. Association and Bob Jensen is the Escanaba district commissioner.

All persons in the area who are interested in helping the program are welcome to attend the meeting.

Eight Vets Return On HN Track Squad

Coach John Butrymowicz has eight lettermen among 28 athletes on his Holy Name High School track and field squad this season.

The Crusaders, who got their first taste of competition in the Northern Indoor Relays Saturday at Marquette, will have a busy slate this spring. They travel to Kingsford for their first dual action on Wednesday, April 27 and will compete in the second annual Great Northern Conference meet at Escanaba track Saturday, April 30.

Back in action from last year's Holy Name squad are Bob Bracco, John Burroughs, Mike Dubord, Bill Fedor, John Goranich, Joe LaFleur, Mike C'Leary and Jim Groos.

In addition to the two meets on tap this month, the Crusaders are scheduled for action at Menominee May 3, Escanaba May 10, the U. P. regionals at Escanaba May 14 and the U. P. finals at Marquette May 21. Several other meets may be added later, Butrymowicz indicated.

Two Golf Vets

In golf this spring, Coach Brother Felix has two letter winners back from the squad that captured the Great Northern Conference championship last year. The veterans are David Delorge and Joseph Snow, both seniors.

Other members of the squad include seniors Patrick Bonifas, Charles McCarthy, John Peltin, Robert Ryan and Duane St. Allingham and Peter Prinski Cyr, juniors James Anzalone, William Bast, Terrence Guay, and Thomas Quinn.

The netters will compete against Gwinn, Menominee, Marinette, Kingsford, Iron Mountain and Alpha in addition to the Great Northern Conference meet May 12 and the U. P. finals May 27.

Awards Program Runs On And On

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP) — Television producers seem to be able to compress almost anything into 60 or 90 minutes with time left for commercials. But when it comes to handing out movie Oscars and television Emmies, the program runs on and on.

At the stars, clothes are about half the fun of the show, this proved very satisfying.

Master of ceremonies Bob Hope was his usual irreverent self from his opening crack about the audience — "sitting out there are the stars of today and the senators of tomorrow" — to the presentation of a special gold medal by the academy which caught him unprepared. "I'm caught with my idiot cards down," was the best he could muster.

The long parade of men and women walking up and making speeches is not the most stimulating entertainment in the world.

Dragging out the proceedings unnecessarily with elaborately staged solos of the nominated songs — highly unmemorable songs, too — did not help much either. And, there was no excuse for the long dance number injected in the middle of things.

The most popular program in the new national Nielsen report is "Carol Plus Two." Carol Burnett's special on CBS last month that co-starred Lucille Ball and Zero Mostel. But the most interesting item in the report that Red Skelton's CBS show passed the perennial champion, NBC's "Bonanza" in the ratings.

Top shows during the two week period ending April 3 were, in order of popularity:

Carol Plus Two, The Red Skelton Show, Bonanza, CBS' Lucy Show and Gomer Pyle, ABC's Alice in Wonderland, CBS' Andy Griffith Show, ABC's Batman — Thursday night episode — CBS' Hogan's Heroes and the Thursday Night Movies.

CBS retained its lead in the average network ratings for evening shows with 20.3, with NBC following with 18.7 and ABC, 18.2.

Houghton Child Among Ten Car Crash Victims

By The Associated Press

A single car crash southeast of Marshall Saturday was the only multiple fatality auto accident of the weekend and claimed two lives of the 10 lost on the state's highways.

The Associated Press count began at 6:00 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Barbara Jean Favourite, 24, of Battle Creek, and Beverly Stiver, 23, of Hudson, were killed in the crash Saturday about two miles southeast of Marshall. Officers said their car failed to negotiate a curve.

Other fatalities included:

Jay Paananen, 7, of Houghton, hit by a car on U.S. 41 between Houghton and Chassell Saturday.

Voiceprint Trial Jury Deadlocked

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — A mistrial has been declared in part of a trial in which voice prints were introduced as prosecution evidence.

Judge Robert Dempsey made the ruling after a Westchester County Court jury reported itself "hopelessly deadlocked" Saturday in the trial of George M. Strachle, a suspended New Rochelle policeman charged with perjury.

The voiceprint, which charts the human voice in map-like pictures called spectrographs, may some day rival the fingerprint as a means of identification, researchers say.

Strachle was accused of lying to a grand jury in denying that he had warned a gambler of an impending police raid.

War On Poverty Rapped

Extension Neglect Cited

Dr. Albert S. Mowery, who is leaving the direction of the Michigan State University center for continuing education and Extension services at Marquette, today made a swan song statement critical of the federal government's war on Poverty neglect of the Extension Services.

(The Cooperative Extension Service is a joint federal-state-county program.)

"I personally have been pleased with the financial support given by Michigan State University from state and federal funds in support of the Upper Peninsula Extension Service," said Dr. Mowery.

"However, of the millions of dollars now being pumped into the Upper Peninsula by the federal government, the Extension Service is barely receiving a crumb now and then, and yet I firmly believe that in the long haul, it is in the best position to work with other organizations and people in serving the needs of our citizens."

Dr. Mowery had strong praise for the MSU county agents in the Upper Peninsula. "They extend the knowledge of the university to the people as it relates to their needs," he said.

"They are dedicated people doing their best with very limited funds to operate a knowledge center in each county. They are most cooperative with other organizations. They are intelligent people who apply a lot of common sense with knowledge. They are understanding of the people and their needs."

The U.P. is a great place. There will always be an Upper Peninsula. The 'apple knockers, carpetbaggers and experts' from the outside of tentimes do not spend enough time in the area to understand the people and to really know the area. Unless one lives here, invests here (Dr. Mowery has made several investments in Upper Peninsula property) and becomes a part of the community, he can be of somewhat limited effect in helping the people.

Help Gas Stations

"We need these experts, carpetbaggers and apple knockers, but unless they are tied in closely to a local base of operation in each community and have a staff, including many volunteers, to follow through, there is often very little accomplished, except possibly some distribution of the nation's wealth."

"Of course 'experts' running through the Peninsula in expense accounts, and many of these at taxpayers' expense, do help the community by distributing money to the gas pumps, coffee cups, lodging places and

but I am more convinced than ever that we need more of these university-based experts as well as industrial representatives in the area.

Job Education Needed

"One must pay tribute to the volunteer leaders in the Extension Service in the U. P. The time and hours donated by volunteer leaders far exceeds the tax dollars put into our Extension program. It 4-H alone U. P. volunteer leaders contribute in time and travel well over a quarter million dollars. Their time, if converted to a full time teacher equivalent, would amount to 45 full time teachers."

"Having spent more than 13 years in vocational education work, I have some real concerns for the future of vocational education in the Upper Peninsula. I am pleased to see the strides that have been made, but we have merely scratched the surface."

"Many of our youth do not wish to and need not go on to a four-year college or university, but they certainly need to be better equipped to earn a living in our modern society. Vocational education at the proper level can be of tremendous value in producing self-supporting citizens."

Cuban's Home Bombed Again

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The second unexplained bombing of a Cuban exile's home in as many weeks exploded on the fifth anniversary of the Bay of Pigs invasion.

No one was injured Sunday when a bomb demolished one car, damaged another and shattered windows outside the home of the brother of former Cuban president.

Antonio Prio Socarras, former Cuban finance minister, was asleep when the blast occurred. Prio, 61, is the brother of former Cuban President Carlos Prio Socarras, who was ousted in 1952 by Fulgencio Batista.

The first bombing was at the home of Armando Garcia, editor of the anti-Castro newspaper Patria. The Garcia home was damaged in the same manner — dynamite or a similar type explosive placed under a car.

Prio said he was not involved in any political activity that would prompt an attempt at his life.
